GBJCL VOLUNTEERS COME FROM ALL OVER THE GREATER BOSTON AREA
and serve schools and child
centers in Framingham,
Brockton, Somerville, Boston,
Cambridge, and Maynard.

FOR 20 YEARS, COUNTLESS GBJCL
VOLUNTEERS HAVE MADE PROFOUND DIFFERENCES IN THE LIVES OF GREATER BOSTON'S SCHOOL CHILDREN BY FOSTERING A LOVE OF LEARNING.

Please join us in making an even greater impact on the students we serve by contributing books to participating schools. Support JCRC in meeting the goal of providing 2,000 books to students and continuing to create lifelong readers.

- Participants have the option of donating books at the event by bringing them in hand or donating via participating synagogues.
- Participants may select their own book of choice. Please keep in mind that the majority of students from GBJCL are in grades K-8.
- We are excited to announce the total number of generously donated books at our annual dinner, JCRC Celebrates: GBJCL20. Visit jcrcboston.org/celebrates2017 to learn more and register.
- We request the books be in new or gently used condition so teachers may use them as educational tools and children may add them to their personal libraries.
- We welcome a variety of books to enhance the libraries of high-needs schools. For a list of suggested resources, please visit scholastic.com/parents
- Please consider donating chapter books and books for advanced readers.
